

Casa di Mir's First Climate Change
Symposium:
Global Warming and Sustainability
Thursday February 15th 9:00 am to 8:00 pm

Daytime Events:

9:00 –9:45 am Guest Speaker – Dr. Chris Potter, senior research scientist in the Ecosystem Science and Technology Branch at NASA Ames Research Center

10:10 – 11:30 am Workshops (first rotation)

*Nancy Garrison (The Tea Lady) Master Gardener Program Director for Santa Clara County, Farm Advisor for University of California Cooperative Extension for Santa Clara County

*Student Presentations on: Greenhouse Effect
Global Warming Board Game
Testing Gases with Ph Indicator
Other

11:30-12:30 Garbage Free Lunch time

12:30-1:15 pm Guest Speaker – Ocean Robbins, founder of Youth for Environmental Sanity (YES)

1:15- 2:00 pm Workshops (second rotation)

*Student led workshops and presentations

2:15- 2:45 pm Review of our Home Energy Consumption Activities
How Much Carbon Saved?

Dismissal of Students at their regular times

Evening Events:

6:30-7:15 pm Guest Speaker – Rob Caughlan, documentary film producer and former assistant to the deputy of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

6:30- 8:00 pm Global Warming Workshops (1/2 hour slots) with James Callahan, docent from LHS Berkeley

7:15- 8:00 pm Open Exhibits and Presentations by students

Other activities: Energy-saving light bulbs available
Trees planted (Thank you, Harvey Whitehead)